

WARMING WINTER
COCKTAIL MENU

‘BIRD’
BY WILLIAM MORRIS

This striking, cotton chintz fabric design perfectly captures the joys of winter days.

Produced in 1878 for the drawing room of Morris’ family home, Kelmscott House, and made in four colourways, this captivating creation portrays pairs of birds perching and in flight.

The original and ornate wallpaper wrapping our grand Ballroom, is that of the prestigious British textile designer, William Morris, and holds a Grade II listing.
